Flying Queens Camps

Tory Bryant
Head Coach

Tory Bryant just completed his second year as head coach of the Flying Queens. Under his leadership the Queens posted 22 regular season and conference tournament wins, the team's first 20-win season since 1999-2000. The Queens also posted a team record 14 conference wins and earned an at-large invitation to the NAIA national tournament, the first since 2004. Bryant came to the Queens after three years as coach of Trinity Christian High School in Lubbock, winning two state titles in three trips to the finals. Bryant has also served as assistant coach at the University of Texas at Arlington and as assistant coach at Lubbock Christian University and West Texas A&M University.

At the Flying Queens Camps, coach Bryant's staff will instruct and assist in supervision of the campers. The campers will learn from these outstanding coaches, including assistant coach Joe Adams and graduate assistant Temeckia Brown.

The Flying Queens players will serve as dorm counselors and instructors. They will give individualized instruction to each camper and will coach the campers and teams during tournament play each evening. Nightly activities will include a talent show, game night, movie and pizza night.

Campers and staff will also participate in daily devotionals.

What to Bring

All campers should bring these items: Sheets for a twin bed, blankets, pillows, towels, toiletries, casual clothing, shorts, basketball shoes, socks, spending money for concessions and novelty items. All campers will receive a camp t-shirt. Those attending fundamentals camps will also receive a Queens basketball. Check-in will be held at Hutcherson gymnasium.
