Trainer: Jason Pirkey Student Trainer: D'Nae Kellum

Game Notes: The Flying Queens are recognizing four seniors this afternoon. Shamon Doss is a two-year member of the Queens who is among the SAC rebounding leaders. Jessica Walker also came to WBU last year. She is among the NAIA leaders in both assists and steals this season. Edite Kresa is a four-year letterwinner who saw her season and career come to a premature end with a knee injury after 17 games. She finished up with 853 career points. Rose Ouma, a 3rd team All-American selection last season and a member of the Queens All-Decade Team, is a member of the Queens' coaching staff this year.

Game Notes: The Lady Evangels must win today to have any hope of playing in next week's SAC Tournament hosted by Southern Nazarene University. The first round games on the women's side are scheduled for Thursday, March 4 at 9:00 am, 10:45 am, 12:30 pm and 2:15 pm. The conference standings following today's games will be used to determine the final seedings and pairings. In the first round, #5 will play #4, #6 will play #3, #7 will play #2, and #8 will play #1. In the first meeting of the year between MACU and the Queens, WBU won in overtime 83-78. Erika Raymond had 19 points to lead the Queens, while Brittany Johnson paced the Lady Evangels with 18 points.
