

Robert Davenport, the Pioneers head coach, has more than 18 years of coaching experience, including

Robert Davenport
Head Coach

stints at UT-Pan American, Oklahoma Baptist University, Missouri Baptist University and LeTourneau University.

Davenport is committed to teaching not only the basic fundamental basketball skills to the young men in his programs, but also to building strong character which will be important to development both on and off the court.

Davenport follows these same guidelines for his basketball camps. The Pioneers camps feature daily devotionals and stresses academic, social and spiritual aspects of player development.

Campers will receive personal attention from Pioneers players both past and present as well as from area high school and college coaches. There is a low coach to camper ratio.
